

Master of Grief and Palliative Care Counselling Research

This program is only available to international students in 2012 where there is no corresponding Master of Research Studies program

These Program Rules should be read in conjunction with the University's policies (<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/policies>).

1. General

1.1 This document must be read in conjunction with:

- a the General Academic Program Rules for Master by Research Programs (see under Adelaide Graduate Centre) and
- b the Research Student Handbook, published by the Adelaide Graduate Centre.

These documents explain procedures to be followed and contain guidelines on supervision and research for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy and the various Masters Degrees by research, offered by the University.

All students must comply with both the General Academic Rules and the rules following below, and procedures outlined in the Research Student Handbook.

In addition to the General Academic Program Rules for Masters by Research degrees, in this publication, the following Discipline specific rules apply.

2. Admission

2.1 Further to the Rule 4 of the general Academic Program Rules on eligibility and academic standing requirements, admission to candidature for the Master in Grief and Palliative Care Research may be granted to:

- a) Persons who have qualified for an Ordinary degree of the University of Adelaide in an appropriate field of study, or a degree of another institution accepted by the Faculty for the purpose as equivalent, and who have at least two years' approved professional work experience.
