

Master of Laws

This program is only available to international students in 2012 where there is no corresponding Master of Research Studies program

These Program Rules should be read in conjunction with the University's policies (<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/policies>).

1 General

- 1.1 This document must be read in conjunction with:
- a the General Academic Program Rules for Master by Research Programs (see under Adelaide Graduate Centre) and
 - b the Research Student Handbook, published by the Adelaide Graduate Centre.

These documents explain procedures to be followed and contain guidelines on supervision and research for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy and the various Masters Degrees by Research, offered by the University.

All students must comply with both the General Academic Rules and the rules following below, and procedures outlined in the Research Student Handbook.

In addition to the General Academic Program Rules for Masters by Research degrees, in this publication, the following discipline specific rules apply.

2 Admission

- 2.1 Further to Rule 4 of the General Academic Program Rules, the Research Education and Development Committee may accept as a candidate for the degree of Master of Laws any person who has qualified for:
- i. an Honours Degree of Bachelor of Laws; or
 - ii. a degree of Bachelor of Laws with Honours at the University of Adelaide.

The degree presented as qualification for admission must contain a research component deemed appropriate by the Research Education and Development Committee. An Honours degree that contains only coursework will not be accepted for this purpose.

3 Submission of thesis

In satisfying rule Rule 19.1 of the General Academic Program Rules, the candidate shall submit a thesis of not more than 70,000 words.
