These Program Rules should be read in conjunction with the University's policies (<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/policies>).

Overview

Students will be introduced to the discipline of Art History and curatorship with in-depth study. They will develop foundation knowledge and critical skills in visual analysis, contextual research of diverse images and objects, art historical methods and theories, and different modes of writing about art.

The Graduate Diploma in Art History is an AQF Level 8 qualification with a standard full-time duration of 1 year.

Conditions

Interruption of program:

Students must apply for permission from the Executive Dean or delegate before taking a Leave of Absence. Any extension of the leave without approval will result in the loss of place in the program but an application may be made to be re-admitted to the program subject to the admission procedures in place at the time.
